

Local Leaders for Fairness Statement of Support

The majority of Virginians and business leaders in the commonwealth agree that including protections for sexual orientation and gender identity in workplace, housing, and public accommodation non-discrimination policies makes Virginia a more welcoming and inclusive place to live, work, and visit. Currently, Virginia has no such workplace, housing, or public accommodation protections.

As a local elected official, I support legislation codifying the basic human right of all individuals to be free from discrimination in the workplace, housing, and accessing public accommodations based on sexual orientation and gender identity or expression.
